Carr Fire Evacuation Shelters

Redding, CA – The evacuation shelters located at Foothill High School and Crosspoint will close tomorrow, August 4th, at noon. Shelter operations will be consolidated as evacuees return home. Shelter residents of these two shelters are being transferred to the shelter located at Shasta College.

Shelter residents were provided 24 hour advance notification that the shelter is scheduled to close. Evacuees still in need of shelter will be welcomed at the Shasta College shelter location.

Redding Area Bus Authority (RABA) is providing transportation for shelter residents between the Shasta College shelter and the Local Assistance Center.
